Call for Papers

The Fiber Society seeks papers on fundamental research related to the science and engineering of fibers and fibrous materials for its 2016 Spring Conference, scheduled for May 25–27, 2016, at the University of Haute Alsace, Mulhouse, France. Submissions of original work related but not limited to the following themes are welcomed:

- Fiber Formation, Structure, and Properties
- Fiber Testing and Characterization
- Natural Fibers
- Nanofibers by Electrospinning
- Smart Polymers, Fibers, and Textiles
- Fibers for Biomedical Applications
- Fiber Composites
- Textile/Apparel Marketing and Management
- Yarns and Fabrics: Processes, Structures, and Properties
- Dyeing and Finishing
- Functional Fibers
- Nanofibers by Methods Other Than Electrospinning
- Fibers for Protection Applications
- Fibers for Energy and Sensor Applications
- Fashion and Costume
- Fibers for Defense and Homeland Security

Online submissions only will be accepted beginning of 01/01/2016. Access the Fiber Society website at thefibersociety.org and follow the link for submission; do not email your submission. Formatting guidelines for oral and poster abstracts are provided online (2-page limit on all abstracts). Submissions must be in the proper Word document format; no PDFs.

The Submission Deadline has been extended to Sunday, March 6, at Midnight EST [Monday, March 7, 6 AM CET (Paris)].

Notification of acceptance will be no later than 04/09/2016.

Conference registration will be online through the Fiber Society website. Up-to-date information about the conference, hotel accommodations, travel, and more will be available on the website as details are finalized.
